13. "Today we are living in a dynamic world. We cannot remain prisoners of dogmas and narrow concepts. We must come out of the self-made cocoon and narrow confines to look at the big world outside which is full of avenues, opportunities and possibilities. We must shake off our smallness and be a part of the wind of change which is blowing across the globe. We cannot afford to deprive ourselves from the opportunities available everywhere."

Naharlagun Railway Station gets free Wi-Fi facility

DCM launches high speed free Wi-Fi

ITANAGAR, May 10: Much to the delights of the railway commuters, the Naharlagun Railway Station gets free Wi-Fi facility with the launching of high speed free Wi-Fi by the Deputy Chief Minister, Chowna Mein here on Tuesday.

Mein in his inaugural speech said, "the launching of free Wi-Fi is another step towards digital connectivity" and added that it would fill the digital divide of the country and contribute towards fulfillment of Prime Minister's Digital India initiative.

Citing this initiative just the beginning of digital connectivity in the state, he informed that under BharatNet project, executed by RailTel with the full support of Arunachal Pradesh government, most of the District, Blocks, Circles and Gram Panchayats will be connected with High speed internet very soon which will further bridge the gap of digital divide and will enhance the services of e-governance, e-education, e-medical etc. for the betterment of people of Arunachal Pradesh, Mein said. He assured to extend all possible support to the on-going project work for development of infrastructure and betterment of the people of the State.

He added that the enhanced digital connectivity will further facilitate smooth implementation of GST in the State and informed that after the implementation of GST, revenue collection of the State has also increased.

State govt committed to plug revenue loopholes & streamline financial transactions: CM;

Dedicates Zhangdongrong Mini Hydel project to people

DIRANG, May 10:

The revenue generated by the state government in the last few years has been outstanding and the increment trajectory every financial year has been exponential, informed Chief Minister Pema Khandu here on Saturday.

While asserting the state government's commitment to plug revenue loopholes and streamline financial transactions, Khandu said that the measures adopted resulted in increased revenue generation of Rs1253 crore last financial year compared to Rs 900crore under the previous regime.

"We generated Rs 300 crore more than the previous year immediately after we came to power. This financial year we generated Rs 1600 crore and in the next (2018-19) we aim to cross Rs 2000 crore. Such a growth trajectory has never been witnessed in the state since its inception," he said this attending a developmental meeting here in West Kameng district.

Khandu assured that the money is being judiciously and equally utilized for developmental projects in every assembly constituency and the districts.

He said sufficient funds under SIDF are being distributed to each assembly constituency - irrespective of party affiliation of the incumbent MLA - first to complete all unfinished projects and then take up new projects.

"I can vouch that no other state in the North East has a Secretariat or Assembly building as grand as ours!" he observed.

Khandu explained in detail the hard work and commitment that went into preparation of the state's vision Document and Budget 2018-19. He said the government is committed to decentralize the administration and therefore set up divisional commissioner offices for Western and Eastern zones besides setting up zonal offices of all line departments. He announced establishment of a PWD Chief Engineer's office at Tawang.

He further stated that with the railway line coming up in various parts of the State viz. at Pasighat, Roing, Tezu, Parashuram Khund, Namsai, Tirap & Changlang Districts and Aalo & Tawang in the pipeline for which the survey works are going on and with the operation of fixed wing aircrafts at Advanced Landing Grounds at Pasighat & Tezu followed by ALGs at Ziro & Mechuka, there will be tremendous improvement in the connectivity in all sectors. He exuded hope that with these improvements in the connectivity, tourist flow will also increase in the State.

Parliamentary Secretary for PWD & UD, Techi Kaso while lauding the initiative requested the Dept. of IT & Communication, Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh and Govt. of India that whenever such projects are launched it should also be extended to the nearby villages for the larger benefit of the local population. He said that since the local villages nearby mostly consists of the land donor for the Railways, employment opportunities should also be given to them.

DC Capital Complex cum Special Secretary for IT, Prince Dhan informed that the government is focusing on improving digital connectivity and employing all means to expand connectivity up to village level. He also informed that 407 GP will have Internet connectivity by the end of December 2018 and 100 GPs will be connected by fibre by AirJaldi. He further said that Free Space Optical Communication (FSOC) technology will be brought-in in the State to connect the remote locations and the main focus is on using RailWire for fibre based connectivity.

Governor exhorts officers to try new ideas and reach out to people

PANGIN, May 10: Arunachal Pradesh Governor Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has exhorted the district officers to try new ideas and reach out to the people. "Be punctual and maintain schedule, depend more on visits, personal contacts and address their challenges or else the very purpose of administration will be defeated", he said.

The Governor, who was on a two-day visit to Siang district, met the District Heads of Departments at Pangin yesterday. He reiterated that in the implementation of projects, programmes and schemes of the government there must be transparency, accountability, continuity, review and audit and if require, mid-term correction and advised them that they must avoid the 'tendency of pen pushing'.

Interacting with the officials, the Governor said that whatever action they take or initiate, it must be for welfare, wellbeing and development of Siang district. He advised them to ensure that the last person on the last rung of the society benefits from the schemes and programmes.

Stating that road communication and IT & mobile connectivity are the most essential aspects of life today, the Governor stressed that the road construction agencies, optical fibre laying company and Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd to work in hand in hand and expedite the connectivity process. He said that success of many important central and state government's schemes and programmes depend on road communication and IT & mobile connectivity, including supply of essential items, Aadhar linking, Direct Beneficiary Transfer (DBT).

Emphasizing on doubling the farmer's income, the Governor advised the officers of agriculture and horticulture departments to gap between market prices and price at which the farmers are selling their products. Go out of your way to ensure that farmers get good prices for their hard work, he stressed.

Earlier, Deputy Commissioner Rahul Singh briefed the Governor on the overall developmental scenario of the district.

The Governor visited Community Health Centre, Pangin before leaving for Yingkiang on his three-district tour of Siang, Upper Siang and East Siang district.

World Red Cross Day

World Red Cross Day is celebrated every year on 8th May. This day is an annual event which celebrates the principles of "International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement". It is celebrated every year to pay tribute to the volunteers for their unprecedented contribution to the people in need.

The Mission of the Red Cross Society is to inspire, encourage and initiate at all times and all forms of humanitarian activities so that human suffering can be minimized and to create a peaceful environment.

The Red Cross programmes are grouped into four main core areas: promoting humanitarian principles and values; disaster response; disaster preparedness; health and care in the community.

Seven Principles of Red Cross Society:

Humanity: The main purpose is to protect life and health and to ensure respect for the human being. It promotes mutual understanding, friendship, cooperation amongst all peoples.

Impartiality: It makes no discrimination on the basis of nationality, race, religious beliefs, class or political opinions. The main motive is to help individuals solely on the basis of their needs and to give priority to the most urgent cases of distress.

Neutrality: In order to enjoy the confidence of all, the movement does not engage in controversies of political, racial, religious or ideological nature.

Independence: The movement is independent. The National Societies, while auxiliaries in the humanitarian services of their governments and subject to the laws of their respective countries, must always maintain their autonomy so that they may be able at all times to act in accordance with the principles of the movement.

Voluntary service: It is voluntary relief movement not prompted in any manner by desire for gain.

Unity: The Red Cross society must carry on its humanitarian work throughout its territory.

Universality: The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, in which all societies have equal status and share equal responsibilities and duties in helping each other, is worldwide.

Aajeevika evam Kaushal Vikas Mela conducted

Empowerment of rural women will lead to development of villages - Minister

ITANAGAR, May 10: Aajeevika evam Kaushal Vikas Mela was conducted in various parts of the state on Sunday marking the culmination of Gram Swaraj Abhiyan celebrations in Arunachal Pradesh.

Alo Libang, Minister RD, PR and Cooperation attended as the chief guest and lauded the efforts of ArSRLM in empowering the rural women in the selected blocks under Deendayal Antyodaya Yojana National Rural Livelihoods Mission programme. He said that just as development of villages leads to development of the nation, in a similar manner development and empowerment of rural women will lead to development of villages. Therefore development and empowerment of women is essential for development of state and nation as a whole.

He said that women have been respected traditionally in Arunachal Pradesh, there have been several women visionaries too. Commenting on the experience shared by women SHG members, he said that despite not being formally a member of any Self Help Group, all official functionaries and leaders should consider themselves as members of Self Help Groups and facilitate them. He mentioned that as on date DAY NRLM is being implemented in 12 districts and 15 CD Blocks presently. He expressed his belief in the amazing ability of people of Arunachal Pradesh, and cited that despite formal education coming to the State only in 70s, the State has made considerable progress in a short span of time, especially as ground operations commenced from September 2016 onwards.

He also called upon the senior representatives from various banks including APRB, NABARD, Apex Bank, YES Bank to come forward and support the initiatives for ensuring cent percent financial inclusion in the State.

The Minister said that the main aim of Gram Swaraj Abhiyan, being conducted all across the country under the visionary leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, was to create awareness and enthusiasm about various government programmes and concentrate on saturating 21058 villages with basic amenities and ensure financial inclusion. 356 villages are being covered in Arunachal Pradesh under Gram Swaraj Abhiyan.

Earlier, speaking on the occasion Mama Natung, Parliamentary Secretary (RD, PR and IPR) Mama Natung said that the real strength of the State lies with the people. He also said that people of the state are also realising the subtle change that the state has been witnessing under the present NDA government and the efforts of state government under the leadership of Chief Minister Pema Khandu, is also bringing results.

He whole heartedly appreciated the rural women SHG members who had arrived from Yingkiang, Seppa, Sagalee, Yachuli, Daporijo, Basar, Pangin, Roing and Namsai. He said that the policies of Central government might appear difficult to implement, but adherence to guidelines and policies for upliftment of rural poor shall bring out the real strength of people. This shall enable them to not only access entitlements but also enable them to contribute towards making their lives better as well as building vibrant villages and a strengthened nation.

He said that efforts of team members of ArSRLM from the Secretary Rural Development to the Cluster Coordinator, all need to be acknowledged and appreciated for enabling transformation of rural poor women by bringing them into Women SHGs. He also appreciated the policies of Government of India that provided the framework for effecting such implementation.

Smt. Jarjum Ete, a noted social worker and pioneer of women empowerment appreciated the women SHG members. She thanked the State Government for providing much needed autonomy to ArSRLM in implementation of DAY NRLM from the recruitment to physical implementation of the programme. She said that women SHGs under DAY NRLM need to consider personal hygiene, cleanliness, and sanitation along with socio-economic pursuits.

Smt. Techi Meera, State Mission Manager (Financial Management) ArSRLM and Chairman APRB were given certificate of appreciation by Hon'ble Minister RD & PR and Hon'ble Parliamentary Secretary RD & PR respectively.

Secretary (RD, PR) Bidol-Tayeng earlier, welcomed all to the programme. He gave a succinct outline of the programme including its present coverage. He also outlined the various initiatives undertaken under the Gram Swaraj Abhiyan.

Special Secretary RD & PR Nyali Ete speaking on the occasion mentioned about the need for Women SHGs to come forward for implementation of MG NREGA in the selected locations under DAY NRLM. He emphasised on the need for convergence under Rural Development. Representatives from APRB, NABARD and YES Bank also shared their opinion on the occasion. CEO cum State Mission. The programme was attended by senior officials from SIRD & PR, Department of PR, Department of RD, Arunachal Pradesh Women Welfare Society, Women SHG members, officials of ArSRLM and selected invitees.

State govt committed to plug revenue loopholes & streamline...

He said besides decentralization of governance, formulation of schemes and projects are also being decentralized. Henceforth, all schemes and projects would be decided at the district level through consultations and forwarded to the state government, he informed.

In order to bring in fair and impartial recruitment system, Khandu informed that the state government is processing to constitute a staff selection board that will be mandated to conduct recruitment of all group C posts. With the APPSC already in place, the newly created board will plug all practices of illegal or 'back door' appointments, he affirmed.

He appealed people to avail the benefits of flagship programs like the Swawlamban Yojana. Expressing concern over lesser number of beneficiaries from the area, he exhorted government officials to spread awareness amongst the people on all such schemes.

Khandu welcomed the proposal to shift the old Additional Deputy Commissioner Office to a new location at Chuk Valley and called on the locals to donate land for the purpose. He assured funds for construction of a mini-secretariat at the new location. He also announced a fire tender establishment at Dirang.

Union Minister of State for Home Kiren Rijiju, who also joined the program, announced Rs 75 crore for construction of a double lane road from the 9 Mile diversion-point to Nafra besides establishment of an ITBP Sector HQ in Sangti. He also announced Rs

2 crore for development of Thembang village as a smart village.

Rijiju emphasized on proper coordination between the state and the center for developmental projects to accelerate. He said the sudden demise of the then Chief Minister Dorjee Khandu, brakes were put on developmental projects in the state. He though expressed happiness that under Pema Khandu, son of the late Chief Minister, all pending projects are being taken up with new vigour and are seeing the light of day.

Local legislator and Parliamentary Secretary for Health, Phurpa Tsering expressed gratitude on behalf of the people to Rijiju and Khandu for sanctioning an amount of Rs 7 crore and Rs 95 lakhs respectively for relief and rehabilitation of the Dirang fire victims. He further thanked the Chief Minister for contributing generously in construction of the Upper Gompa and the Sangti Gompa.

Earlier, the Chief Minister dedicated the Zhangdongrong Mini Hydel project (2x500 KW) to the people. The mini-hydel constructed by the state Hydro Power Development department will supply power to about 19 villages in the area. Phosum Khimhun, Parliamentary Secretary for Hydro Power Development, assured to provide a transformer so that uninterrupted power is supplied to the villages.

Meanwhile, Rijiju laid the foundation stone for Rs 18 crore Tchang Ringbu RCC bridge in presence of the Chief Minister and Parliamentary Secretaries Phosum Khimhun, Kumsi Sidisow and Phurpa Tsering.

Naharlagun Railway Station gets free Wi-Fi facility...

Assistant Divisional Railway Manager, Santosh Kumar Sharma and DGM RailTel, Prakash Ratray while speaking on the occasion informed that the launching of free Wi-Fi at Railway Station is part of the Indian Railways initiative to provide free Wi-Fi facility to Rail users at major Railway stations.

And under this initiative, RailTel has taken the lead and is providing Wi-Fi services at 400 A1 & A category Stations across the country in technology partnership with Google in which Wi-Fi services on more than 200 Railway stations have already been formally inaugurated.

With this free Wi-Fi facility, railway passengers can remain connected while waiting for the train. They can also use this facility for streaming High Density Videos, do their office work online, downloading new games for their journey, downloading movies, researching their destination etc.

One can connect to the free Wi-Fi by registering their mobile number at Wi-Fi network 'Railwire' and by entering the four digits number password sent to their mobile number.

Governor visits Upper Siang

YINGKIONG, May 10: Arunachal Pradesh Governor Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.), who was on a four-day district tour reached Yingkiang in Upper Siang district on Wednesday.

The Governor and the First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra were accorded traditional reception by Ponung and Tapu dance troupes on their arrival by road at Geku and Yingkiang led by local Geku-Mariyang MLA Olom Pangyang, Deputy Commissioner Duli Kamduk and Superintendent of Police Dr. G.S. Sidhu.

Addressing a huge public meeting at Yingkiang, The Governor said that the pace of development has enhanced in last few years in the state. Many important projects have been taken up and fund is being provided accordingly. He called upon the people to shoulder responsibility in ensuring transparency, accountability, continuity, review and audit and if required, mid-term correction in the implementation of projects, programmes and schemes of the government.

In his maiden visit to the district, the Governor appealed to the people to go for entrepreneurship and self employment. He made special request to the parents and guardians to motivate their wards towards these alternate livelihoods instead of government jobs.

Stating that road communication and IT & mobile connectivity are the most essential aspects of life today, the Governor advised the road construction agencies, optical fire laying company and Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd to work in as a unit to expedite the connectivity challenges. He said that success of many important central and state government's schemes and programmes depend on road communication and IT and mobile connectivity, including supply of essential items, Aadhar linking, Direct Beneficiary Transfer (DBT).

Emphasizing on strengthening education and health sectors, the Governor said that human resources in health and education departments must be managed in an equitable manner. Stressing on 'Schachhta', he advised the teachers and doctors to teach the students on healthy hygiene practices and instil sense of cleanliness to the children at young age.

Informing the people regarding vacancies in Indian Army, which he had initiated for the youth of the state, the Governor made a passionate appeal to the gaonburahs, Panchayat leaders, public leaders and government officials to motivate the youth to avail the opportunity. He said that with 'Home grown' soldiers, the state and nation will be more secured.

Further, informing that there are, at present, six Arunachali officers in Indian Army, Indian Air Force and Indian Navy, whom he suggested to form a group titled, 'Pay back to Society'. He said that the officers will go to schools and colleges in the state and motivate the youth to join Indian Army.

As a token of appreciation to the GaonBurah, the Governor presented a 'Red Coat' to senior most GaonBurah of the district Aduk Nopi, Gaon Burah of Simong village on the occasion.

Deputy Commissioner Duli Kamduk, Yingkiang ZillaParishad Members BadingTeng, Tuting ZillaParishad Members Nyokgon Nitik and GaonBurah Akkong Libang also spoke on the occasion.

Later, the Governor visited the Indian Army Unit stationed at Yingkiang. Interacting with the personnel, the Governor highlighted the importance of their role and duty and appreciated their zeal and enthusiasm towards national integrity. He commended their initiatives in providing pre-recruitment trainings to the local youth and under Operation Samaritan. The Governor expressed gratitude to them on behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh.

Earlier, the Governor and the First lady of the state visited the District Hospital and interacted with the doctors and nursing staff. He advised them to take pride in the noble profession and avoid the tendency of referring patients to bigger hospital.

DC inaugurates Bamboo Depot

ITANAGAR, May 10:

Itanagar Capital Complex Deputy Commissioner Prince Dhawan has inaugurated the Bamboo Depot at 6 km near Palwan Point along National Highway between Naharlagun and Itanagar in presence of Gora Lotak, Councillor, EAC Itanagar Hengo Basar, Charu Yassuk Chairman IMBWC, Khyoda Yaji, President AAPH&SVF and host of other people.

Speaking on the occasion, the DC traced back the history of long association of bamboo with the tribal culture which is an inherent part of its identity and culture. He urged upon the members of the Itanagar Market Bamboo Welfare Committee (IMBWC) to ensure that all the bamboo vendors function within the designated location and not to allow random selling of bamboos along the NH- 415 other than the depot. He assured to notify the area as Bamboo Vending zone in the next Town Vending Committee meeting and directed the Councillor Gora Lotak and Roger Nabam, General Secretary AAPH&SVF to submit a proposal in this regard.

He also cited the example of vending zones in Itanagar and Naharlagun and lauded the executive members of AAPH&SVF for their cooperation in streamlining the system in a disciplined way and hoped the same from the IMBWC.

Emphasizing on the importance of Swacchta, the DC urged upon them to keep the area clean and to pay their garbage collection charges timely. He also urged them to cooperate with the District Administration in carrying out awareness and to brief people about the depot so that the system could be streamlined otherwise the DA would be bound to carryout eviction of random bamboo vendors.

The IMBWC also submitted a memorandum wherein they requested the DC for a toilet at the depot to which the DC assured to take it up in the 2nd phase of construction of community toilets and asked Lotak to submit representation regarding the same. The DC also informed that the 1st phase is expected to be completed in a month during which 46 community toilets in Itanagar, Naharlagun and Banderdewa are being constructed.

Lotak also stressed on the use of bamboo as an inherent part of tribal culture. He further requested the DC to explore the possibility of allotment of a permanent bamboo depot. He also requested the IMBWC to ensure that there should not be mushrooming of bamboo vendors and bamboo sellers should run their business within the notified area only. He also lauded the role of the DC in removing the 3rd dirtiest city tag of Itanagar and stressed upon the people to work with zeal and enthusiasm under the young and energetic DC.

Khyoda Yaji, President AAPH&SVF also stressed on the need to streamline the bamboo vendors under one umbrella at the notified area.

Charu Yassuk President, IMBWC briefed about the history of the bamboo vendors in the Capital Complex since 2002 and thanked the DA for their effort in identifying a proper area for the vendors and hoped that the area would be notified soon.

Mein inaugurates world class Astro-Turf Hockey ground at SLSA; Emphasises on upgrading level of competitions

ITANAGAR, May 10:

Deputy Chief Minister, Chowna Mein on Wednesday inaugurated the world class Astro-Turf Hockey Ground at SangayLhaden Sports Academy, Chimpu.

On the occasion, Mein said that Sangay Lhaden Sports Academy is the centre of sports activities in the state and lauded the Sports Academy for their endeavour in tapping the hidden sports talents of the state and for imparting scientific training and coaching to them besides providing academic education. He said that young sports man and woman of the state has brought laurels to the state in many Zonal, National and International level sports competitions/championship in Boxing, Judo Weightlifting, Wushu, Table Tennis and Badminton, etc.

He also lauded the Arunachal women and men who have also earned a niche for the state in the field of mountaineering.

While citing that there is no dearth of sports talents in the state, he emphasized on providing more training facilities and urged the Sports Academy to upgrade the level of competitions and produce more sports persons like that of the Manipur from our State too.

He also said to encourage and involve maximum numbers of youths to take part in games & sports activities to counter the prevailing social evils like drug addictions.

He said that the sports facilities will not only be concentrated to the State Capital but it will also be extended to the district headquarters too. One more State of the Art Sports Academy will be established in Tidarap, Changlang and Longding (TCL) region which was also announced in his Budget Speech and seven new major stadiums are also coming up in Yupia, Pasighat, Ziro, Daporijo, Chimpu, Aalo and Tezu, out of which the construction work of Yupia, Pasighat, Ziro and Daporijo is on the verge of completion.

Mein while assuring to strengthen the men power of the Department of Sports & Youth Affairs, asked Parliamentary Secretary for Sports & Youth Affairs to send the proposal to place it before the Cabinet. He also asked the Department to submit the DPR for Rostrum and public gallery around the Hockey & Football Ground at SangayLhaden Sports Academy and assured to provide fund for the same.

Deputy Director of Sports (Technical), Heri Robin informed that Astro-Turf Hockey Ground is the first project of its kind in the State funded under the 'Khelo India Scheme' a flagship programme of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Govt of India. It was constructed by the Engineering Wing of the Department of Sports with an estimated cost of Rs 500 lakhs. He also informed that the Hockey turf was imported from the USA and international size and standard of the ground were maintained so that the national and international games can be conducted on this ground. He further informed that water supply provision for the ground and cover drain were also installed around the ground to prevent water logging and players can practice in all types of weathers here.

Managing Director, Khelo India, Gumnya Karbak and Deputy Director of Sports, Mala Linggi also spoke on the occasion.

Among others, Parliamentary Secretary for Sports & Youth Affairs, NyamarKarbak, Vice-Chairman Sports Authority of Arunachal Pradesh, DoniNich, Vice-Chairman Arunachal Olympic Association, G Doka, President All Arunachal Hockey Association, GumjumHaider, Secretary, Sports & Youth Affairs, Dani Salu and Director Sports, Tadar Appa were also present on the occasion.

Khandu graces maiden conference of 'Monpa Mimang Tshokpa'

TAWANG, May 10:

The dream for an apex body of Monpa tribe residing in West Kameng and Tawang districts of Arunachal was finally realized on Monday, May 7 last.

In the first general conference of 'Monpa Mimang Tshokpa' (MMT) chaired by Chief Minister Pema Khandu here at Kalawangpo Convention Hall, about 500 delegates from Monpa tribe of the two districts unanimously adopted the constitution and bye-laws of the organization - bringing the whole tribe under one platform.

"The desire to have a common platform for all Monpa people was first felt in 2009 by former CM late Dorjee Khandu and late TG Rinpoche", Khandu said in his address during the conference.

He congratulated the Monpa society and the newly selected MMT President, Rinchin Dorjee and MMT Secretary General TT Dirkipha and all other members of the central executive committee (CEC) of the 'Tshokpa' for the dream to have been finally fulfilled. "Besides working for upliftment of Monpa people, the apex body will help them to reach out to other tribes in Arunachal building bridges for peaceful and cordial relation," said Khandu.

Extending greetings to all other communities in Arunachal on behalf of 'Tshokpa', the Chief Minister said the Monpa apex body will also work along with other tribal apex bodies in the state for spreading communal harmony and to generate feeling of brotherhood.

Underlining the importance of community apex bodies in culturally diverse states like Arunachal, Khandu said the apex bodies have helped resolved conflicts between tribes by giving opportunities for dialogues and bridging the differences. He said the apex bodies in Arunachal have also strengthened peaceful co-existence and harmony between tribes. To strengthen cultural harmony within the Monpa tribe, the Chief Minister emphasized on use of Bhoi as a common language in the tribe that speaks more than three different dialects - incomprehensible to each other.

Khandu thanked former Chief Minister Nabam Tuki under whose tenure, the state government had assured to create about 100 posts of Bodhi teacher to teach the language.

Earlier, RWD Parliamentary Secretary Jambey Tashi urged the apex body to adopt good practices followed in other communities and to forge relations to learn from each other.

Health Parliamentary Secretary Phurpa Tsering urged that to bring oneness among Monpas, he emphasized on language exchange programs between Monpas of Tawang, Dirang and Kalaktang.

Besides daylong discussion on roles and objectives of the apex body, the conference felicitated DIG PN Khrimy and SSB DIG Sonam Yudron.
