On the occasion of the Republic Day, the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Shri Satya Gopal Mein, inaugurated the Foundation Stone laying ceremony of the Jambay Yatra project. The project aims to provide infrastructure and development in the remote areas of Arunachal Pradesh.

In his speech, the Governor highlighted the significance of the Jambay Yatra project in promoting community development and enhancing the quality of life in remote areas. He emphasized the need for inclusive growth and the importance of addressing the needs of the marginalized communities.

The project involves the construction of a series of Shivalinga temples and other civic amenities in the Jambay Yatra region. It is expected to provide employment opportunities, improve access to education and healthcare, and boost tourism in the area.

The Foundation Stone laying ceremony was attended by various dignitaries, including the Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh, Shri Pema Khandu, along with leaders from different governments and organizations.

The event was marked by the laying of the Foundation Stone, followed by speeches and other activities. The celebration echoed the spirit of the national motto of "Jai Hind" and the resolve to work for a better future for all.

The Governor expressed his hope that the project would contribute to the overall development of the state and urged all stakeholders to work together for its successful implementation.

The event was covered by local and state media, showcasing the commitment of the state government to social development and infrastructure projects.

In conclusion, the Foundation Stone laying ceremony was a significant event that marked the beginning of a new chapter in the development of the Jambay Yatra region. It demonstrated the state government's commitment to inclusive growth and the betterment of the lives of the people living in remote areas of Arunachal Pradesh.

A colourfull programme, organised by the Department of Art and Culture of Arunachal Pradesh, was presented on the occasion of the 70th Republic Day of India. The Government, along with the students from various educational institutions and various categories, participated in the programme. The programme was started with the presentation of Tableau participants, followed by the presentation of cultural programmes and sports events.

Tableau Participants

The tableau was presented by the District Administration, Punarbas, with a theme of "Arunachal Pradesh: Land of Diversity and Unity". The tableau highlighted the rich cultural diversity of the state, showcasing the traditional dresses, weapons, and dances of different tribes and communities. The tableau was well-received by the audience, and it was followed by other tableau presentations from various districts of Arunachal Pradesh.

Cultural Programmes

The cultural programmes were the highlight of the celebration. Various cultural troupes from different districts of Arunachal Pradesh presented a wide range of performances, including folk songs, dances, and traditional music. The programmes were well-rehearsed and the performers were in top form, presenting a true reflection of the rich cultural heritage of the state.

Sports Events

The sports events were another highlight of the day. Various sports competitions were held, including the JVF State-level cricket competition, the JVF State-level football competition, and the JVF State-level athletics competition. The events were well-attended, and the performers demonstrated their skills and abilities.

The programme was concluded with a speech by the Governor, Pema Khandu, who highlighted the importance of the Republic Day celebration and the role of the people of Arunachal Pradesh in building a better future for the country. He urged the people to work together for the betterment of the state and the nation.

The programme was a resounding success, and it was well-received by the audience. The Government and the people of Arunachal Pradesh pledge to uphold the democratic traditions of the nation and to work towards a better future for all.
