BOMDILA, APR 15: Taking into account the chances of people and students coming back to the district after the lockdown, DGP Arunachal Pradesh, DC Kamla Leki took up the issue with the SP, Nodal Officer COVID-19 task force head today.

Anticipating rush of people is hundreds through the Bhupalung Check gate, which is the entry point for the three districts of West Kameng, East Kameng and Tawang all after the lockdown period, DC Kamla Leki sought for simple guidelines for the entry of people from the Bundamole gate entry for civils.

He said, this way the concomitant measures, screening and quarantining could be streamlined at the gate entry as the Bunladole gate for civils would facilitate convenient access of medical treatment, police personnel, resources and necessary manpower at Bhuklungshong check point.

“Steamlining the process of who go where and in what time limits, West Kameng officers held meetings with the concerned District Administration, police and Health & Family Welfare department to do the same,” he added.

The matter was taken up by the District Office and a task force has been roped in. The reporting time allocated at 0900 hrs and will continue.

A total of 122 quarantine facilities have been identified at Bhuklungshong, Tawang and Weiklong areas.

SP Bomdila Raja Banthia said “It is being observed all over the district to ensure that all such incidents and assistance are taken care of in a time-bound manner. Therefore, the Department of Health and Family Welfare will provide the necessary help to these people. People are advised to contact the nearest police station for help and assistance.”

ARLO, APR 14: The West Siang Police Officer led by Superintendent of Police, Saurabh Tolumbia, has adopted one needy family each day during the lockdown period, which has brought change not only to their efforts further to help out nearby brothers and sisters in this testing time to the best of their abilities. "Each one help one" Campaign of the West Siang Police Nora covers 37 nearby families.

This effort to help them with ration will be carried out till May 15 and come to earn their wages after re-open of works in work sites. The Police have appealed others who want to help the said families have adopted them to help out to reach to them to West Siang Police

Meanwhile, Mask for all and awareness campaign are being made at sectors and villages by ASPA West Siang unit and for 484 home masks have been distributed by them. 250 voluntary donations also continue to be made and in this K昌 Keng P.K. Yomgo Automobiles contributed Rs. 51,000, Gano Ams. 20,000 and of Singh Ramji and Gano Sonu.

The West Siang Police is committed to provide assistance to one needy family each day for the next 45 days, which it will continue to do as long as the lockdown continues.
