Being a student of Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya I feel proud as I got an opportunity to read one of the beautiful and inspiring story which was there in our class 6th syllabus

Ramayana— one of the finest Indian epics – teaches love is natural and hatred is taught. Those who closely follow the Rama-yana can find answers to their questions about how love is natural and hatred is taught. The depiction of each of the characters has some message or the other to give.

In this story we will discuss about ‘Manthara dasi’, who played a pivotal role in destroying the beautiful and lovely bond between Kaikeyi and King Dasharatha.

King Dasharatha and his three queens – Kaushalya, Sumitra and Kaikeyi – lived blissfully in their palace in Ayodhya. The only grief the royals had was that they did not have a successor. The palace was desperately in need of a young prince.

By the grace of the almighty, the king and his three queens were blessed with sons – Kaushalya gave birth to Rama; Sumitra to Lakshmana and Shatrughna; Kaikeyi to Bharata.

The three queens loved Rama the most because he was the eldest son of their king and the palace’s first newborn.

There was happiness until Kaikeyi’s maid Manthara started poisoning her mind. Manthara, the humpbacked notorious woman instigated Kaikeyi to fight for her son Bharata’s rights. The cunning maid wanted to see Kaikeyi’s son succeeding Dasharatha to the throne of Ayod-hy.

Initially kaikeyee was delighted and took neckless from her neck and gave to manthara but man-thara continuously scolded kaikeyi and urged her to think of something to stop the coronation.

Kaikeyi showed great resistance to Manthara’s manipulative words and dared her not to corrupt her mind. However, after failing a number of times in her relentless efforts, Manthara was eventually successful in implementing her plan.

This story completely depicts the value of true love and power of hatred. Everything was completely natural and pure in kaikeyi’s mind until manipulated by Manthara.

Similarly if we take a closer look at our lives, we can easily conclude that everything is actually provided by others like birth is given by others, name is given by others, income is given by others, respect is given by others, first and last bath will be given by others, after death our property and belongings will be taken by others even funeral service will be done by others.

Still we have unnecessary ego problems in life and we start hating others. we should try our level best to simplify our life and should strive to love and live with others peacefully.

There is a saying that you need power only when you want to do something harmful otherwise love is enough to get everything done.

Conclusion
Life is beautiful and fragile, please don’t let the madness of the world make your heart bitter. Handle this life you have been given with LOVE KINDNESS and PRAYERS.

No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite.
